TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1876.

FAILURES IN 1875.

Messrs. Dunn, Wynn & Co., of the Commercial Agency, Montreal, have just issued their annual compilation of statistics showing the number of failures in Canada during the past year, together with the amount of liabilities and assets, which shows as follows:

| Province. | Failures. | Liabilities. | Assets. |
|----------------|-----------|--------------|---------------|
| Quebec. | 125. | $1,044,000. | $2,380,700. |
| Ontario. | 105. | 3,303,277. | 5,420,460. |
| New Brunswick. | 12. | 1,000,000. | 1,000,000. |
| New Scotia. | 12. | 2,700,000. | 1,500,000. | | P. E. Island. | 12. | 100,000. | 100,000. |
| Manitoba. | 12. | 100,000. | 100,000. |
| Northwest. | 12. | 100,000. | 100,000. |
| Total. | 183. | $8,243,967. | $11,202,570. |

The compilers go on to say that these figures are almost startling in their magnitude, but it should be borne in mind that they were written by a large number of "lame ducks," some in and some out of business, who made assignments during 1875 so as to avoid the more stringent provisions of the new Bankruptcy Act, making due allowance, however, for this fact, the figures are still so far above the average amount of our annual failures and losses as to indicate that the inflation, overtrading and speculation which have characterized business for several years past have been much greater than is commonly supposed.

The amount of the liabilities of insolvent persons during 1875 was more than double the amount of 1874, and nearly four times as large as the liabilities of the previous year. This proves how severe was the pressure during 1875, and also indicates a very considerable loss of business credit to the country. Taking a not unreasonable view, we should say that the insolvent persons would have realized out of the $11,202,570 at which their value was estimated, a sum of $10,000,000, which would have cleared the country of $1,202,570 of capital during the past twelve months. This may be said to be unexampled in the past history of Canada, and it is probably reducing the accumulation of wealth in the country during the four previous prosperous years.

As showing that the cloud has its silver lining, we may say that the number of cases of insolvency occurred during the third quarter of the year, and that during October, November and December, they were less than during either of the two preceding quarters. The following are the figures for each three months of 1875:

| Quarter. | Failures. | Liabilities. | Assets. |
|-----------------|-----------|---------------|---------------|
| First quarter. | 394. | $4,141,340. | $5,420,460. |
| Second quarter. | 401. | 3,800,400. | 5,420,460. |
| Third quarter. | 401. | 3,800,400. | 5,420,460. |
| Fourth quarter. | 401. | 3,800,400. | 5,420,460. |
| Total. | 1596. | $23,542,967. | $31,681,840. |

The year 1875 will remain a memorable one in Canadian history for the number of failures and losses which have occurred. Not, probably, since the great crisis of 1857-8 have there been more failures in Canada during a single twelve months, or have so many old and long established firms failed, and the walls of so many houses of business been broken down. This has occurred, too, just after the close of a period of unusually rapid development, and great prosperity throughout the Dominion, and when the farming community and the people generally are admittedly quite prosperous. We are, therefore, forced to the conclusion that the failures of 1875, numerous and serious as they have been, do not indicate the un soundness of our business fabric, but are simply the result of the reaction of the overtrading, over speculation, and the thoughtless, which invariably follow a period of inflation in a nation's commerce.

The tide seems to have turned shortly after the late harvest was gathered in, and there are good grounds for believing that abundance has gone far to relieve the pressure and restore confidence. It would be too much, probably, to hope that business will speedily revive to the buoyancy and prosperity of 1874, but there is a strong confidence felt in well informed circles that the worst has been passed, and that before many months come and go the wheels of business throughout the Dominion will again commence to revolve with their accustomed regularity and ease.

The lesson taught by the reverse of the past has been a severe one, but its effects will not be lost if our business men pursue a more conservative policy in the future, than they did during the past. The timber trade shows excellent promise of returning activity, and if the Government refrains from the overtrading, and refrains a tariff in the interest of Canadian manufacturers, the return to a normal state of business prosperity will be much more rapid than it would otherwise be.

Blocked by Snow.—The Union Pacific Railway in Nevada is blocked by snow. Passenger trains are stopped, and all along the line in that State, and freight trains are unable to get through.

Retiring Allowance.—We notice with pleasure that the Ontario Government allow Dr. Ryerson his full salary as retiring allowance on his resignation of the office of Chief Superintendent of Education. Few men have deserved better of their country than Dr. Ryerson, to whom we are indebted for the splendid educational system which is in operation in this Province, and although the Government are not to be blamed for the retirement of a man who has been so long and so faithfully in the service of his country, we do not think that the Government should have granted him the full salary as retiring allowance. It is a very large sum, and it is a pity that it should have been granted to a man who has been so long and so faithfully in the service of his country.

Iron in the Blood

PERUVIAN IRON SYRUP
MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protocarbonate of Iron, is considered as the best of all the Iron preparations, on account of its character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated.

It increases the quantity of blood, and thereby invigorates the system. The enriched and invigorated blood purifies every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhoea, Bolls, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility on a low state of the system.

Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by any intoxicating action, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy from a weak, suffering creature, to a strong, healthy, and happy man or woman.

Persons who are afflicted with any of the above-mentioned ailments, should not hesitantly give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass. Pamphlets Free.

"Poking" she said. "Stupid old fellow! must needs go and put that out in front!" Lillie looked at him with a scornful smile, and then folded and burned it.

John knew what was the matter. John was angry with her; but she couldn't help wondering that he should be so angry. If he had laughed at her, and said that with the trick, she would have understood what it was. But he didn't. He gloomed, that awful condition of the elements, frightened her.

She went to her room, saying that she had a headache, and would go to bed. But she didn't. She took her French novel, and read till she had fallen asleep, and then she threw down her book, and began to cry. He came into the room, and she leaning like a little white snow-bunch over the table, sobbing as if her heart would break. To-day her justice, Lillie's would break. To-day her justice, Lillie's would break. To-day her justice, Lillie's would break.

"Oh, Lillie!" said John, writing down the number of the street, and then looking at the clock. It was ten o'clock. "What made you write that?" "Oh, Lillie!" said John, writing down the number of the street, and then looking at the clock. It was ten o'clock. "What made you write that?" "Oh, Lillie!" said John, writing down the number of the street, and then looking at the clock. It was ten o'clock. "What made you write that?"

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1876.

THE RAILWAY POLIOY.

After a long delay, the promised policy of the Ontario Government on the improvement of the railway to the north, was given to the House on Wednesday, the 2nd inst. It contained in a bill, of which we have explained a synopsis so far as it had been explained by Mr. Treasurer Crooks on moving in the House.

The main features of the measure are such as will, we believe, command the approval of the public, and there seems to be no doubt that the House will adopt the measure. The bill provides for the construction of a line of railway from the Credit Valley to the north, and for the construction of a line of railway from the Credit Valley to the north, and for the construction of a line of railway from the Credit Valley to the north.

The next morning, Lillie, all fresh in a ravishing toilet, was waiting for John at his room. He came in, and she looked at him with a scornful smile, and then folded and burned it.

"Now, John," she said, "don't you think we poor women are treated rather hardly? Men, you know, tell all sorts of lies to carry on their politics and their ambition, and nobody thinks it so dreadful of them."

"Oh, well! you are not a hundred that are as good as you are. Now, we women have all our little amusements, and we are getting on, you see, just as well as our age. Youth and beauty is all there is to you, John."

"Oh, Lillie! don't you say," said John, who felt the necessity of being instructive, and of improving the occasion to leave the moral tone of his life. "You are a young man, dear, when beauty fades."

"Oh, nonsense! Now, John, don't talk humbug. I'd like to see you following goodness when beauty fades. You're a young man, dear, when beauty fades."

"Oh, nonsense! Now, John, don't talk humbug. I'd like to see you following goodness when beauty fades. You're a young man, dear, when beauty fades."

ure, which favorably commends themselves to us, especially the clause relating to running power and haulage of traffic belonging to one Company over the line of another.

The following are the details in detail. All of the great grants of aid are respectively subject to the following conditions:

"Dear me," said Lillie, with an air of pitying contempt, "what a fuss you make about it!"

"Oh, what!" said John, writing down the number of the street, and then looking at the clock. It was ten o'clock. "What made you write that?"

"Of course," said John, writing down the number of the street, and then looking at the clock. It was ten o'clock. "What made you write that?"

Daily Intelligencer.
A Victorious Horse Cured by KIDNEYS.
President Eliot, at a meeting of the Farmers' Club of the American Institute, New York City, read the following:
"A horse in Farmington, formerly driven in a meat cart, was bought by its present owner at a very low price, because of its vicious habits. He would bite, rear, kick, run away, and was utterly unmanageable.
South after changing several owners, the people who had called the purchase a foolish one, were surprised at the difference of the horse's conduct. He would go slow as desired, stop instantly at a whistle, follow his master, come at his call, and let his hand on his shoulder. What had made the change? Not force! The poor horse before, and grew more and more stubborn.
Now he was well fed, well bodied, well trained; over his head, over his shoulders, never whipped, kicked, or scolded. Kind words were given him, and now and then an apple or a lump of sugar. No goading, saber, or more faithful horse was on the road. But, Indian horse, he was not.
Neither head or neck. Occasionally, when in harness, he saw his former master.
Then, invariably, the fire of his nature was aroused. His eyes rolled, he clamped his bit, and showed an intense desire to hold his enemy. Only the voice and the caressing hand of his kind new owner could quiet him. What a power is kindness—the power that the Almighty loves best to use."

Scrubbe vs. Grades.
A correspondent of the Utica Herald has been experimenting as to the relative profitableness of scrub and grade cattle. Probably he does not believe in scrub cattle, as he reports he has two years ago purchased 100 calves.
They were scrub cattle, and he sold them at high grades. At the same time I had a few refuse thoroughbred calves that were not such as I desired to keep, and consequently sold them with the lot I had purchased.
They were so kept until a few weeks since (all together), when fifty-nine choice steers were selected and sold. Two thoroughbred steers were included. The lot averaged 1,370 lbs. The scrubsteers were again weighed, to see how they compared.
They averaged 1,270, and the 1,000 pounds, or about 14 per cent. more than the average of the whole lot, including themselves. Only the voice and the caressing hand of his kind new owner could

he does not believe in scrub cattle, as he reports
he has two years ago purchased 100 calves.
They were scrub cattle, and he sold them at high grades. At the same time I had a few refuse thoroughbred calves that were
sold them with the lot I had purchased.
They were so kept until a few weeks since (all together), when fifty-nine choice steers
were selected and sold. Two thoroughbred steers were included. The lot averaged 1,370 lbs. The scrubsteers were again weighed, to see how they compared.
They averaged 1,270, and the 1,000
pounds, or about 14 per cent. more than
the average of the whole lot, including themselves. Only the voice and the
caressing hand of his kind new owner could
quiet him. What a power is kindness—the
power that the Almighty loves best to use."

Scrubbe vs. Grades.
A correspondent of the Utica Herald
has been experimenting as to the relative
he does not believe in scrub cattle, as he reports
he has two years ago purchased 100 calves.
They were scrub cattle, and he sold them at high grades. At the same time I had a few refuse thoroughbred calves that were

Breeding for the Dairy.
In an address before the Pennsylvania Dairy Association, Colonel O. O. Potter gave the following hints: First, the milking of cows, one characteristic of which, and a very important one, is the staying capacity as a milker. It is sometimes the case that a cow will give a very satisfactory quantity of milk during a brief period of the season while the grass is fresh and most succulent, and then gradually dwindle away to a mere pail, and go dry long before the season is over.
Companies have thought of going out of business. In this respect cows differ in a very important degree, and such importers should be marked and promptly sent to the slaughter. By milking capacity, then, is meant not only the abundance of the flow during what is called the height of the season, but also the characteristic of a persistent milker, continuing with the proper care and feed, up to such a period as shall not be an unreasonable season. Secondly, many would be considered the quality of the milk, and, thirdly, the constitution, and what is termed an "easy keeper," are important characteristics of dairy stock in this valuable and severe climate.

CONTESTING A WILL.

FIRE IN NEW YORK.

LOSSES $145,000.

FROM A MILLIONAIRE TO A PAUPER.

THEN SUICIDE.

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—The Grand Jury of Toronto made the following suggestion in its presentment recently made:

"While the jury are satisfied that the present police force, in all respects, are efficient and well handled as can be well judged, yet a providential constabulary, stationed wherever required, would form a very valuable military nucleus. It is required as such." The subject is well worth the attention of the Legislature, and it is to be hoped that it will be considered at the next session of that body.

There is no finer body of men in the world than the Irish constabulary, and the county police in England and Scotland, a force organized, equipped, similarly, has also proven itself far more efficient than the local police.

Daily Intelligencer.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1876.

Town and Vicinity.

POLICE COURT.—The prevailing fog entered into the Police Court, which was not unraveled to-day by the trial of any case.

HOMES AGAIN.—The members for the Ontario Legislature have returned to their homes, and the Legislature having been adjourned yesterday.

WAGON AGAIN.—The Kingston not content with attributing to the Intelligencer some other newspaper's comment on a political subject, it has now taken up the same subject on the Kingston public hall, which never appeared in our columns, but were extracted from those of a contemporary.

FIRE.—A small boat belonging to Mr. Roblin, which had been hauled out for the winter at the foot of the island between Coleman's Island, and the harbour last night. The incendiary is unknown. An alarm was sounded and the barge turned out, but their services could have been of no avail.

SEALS.—It is stated in a contemporary that genuine seals are making their way up the St. Lawrence.

Should these natives of the bay deep take kindly of boiling water and extend their travels to the Bay of Quinte, they will afford time and profitable sport, at certain seasons, to the numerous visitors of the Bay of Quinte.

RAILROAD.—A railroad which was predicted in the "Probabilities," from Washington yesterday afternoon, began at 10 o'clock last night, and continued until dawn. Rain fell very heavily during the night, and the streets and sidewalks this morning were so muddy and water, owing to the rain and the melting snow. To-day has been the most disagreeable day of the season.

FATALLY SCALDED.—The New

Register says: We regret to learn that a little girl, daughter of Mr. Simon

Smith, of about two years of age, was so badly scalded yesterday that she is now in a very dangerous condition. The little girl, with several other children of the family, was playing in the vicinity of a tub of water, when she unfortunately fell into the tub. She was rescued as soon as possible, but the water was so hot that it caused the most severe scalding of the body. The child is now in a dangerous condition, and it is hoped that she will recover.

A "BURNING" QUESTION.

The Kingston Whig, in the course of a long article on the subject of the recent delay in the Convention, has stated that a celebrated surgeon in Argenteuil, who was one of the most prominent of the group, was opposed to the view of the matter. After the customary assertion that the party was not to be forgiven Mr. Huntington for his share in the "Pacific Scandal" matter, our contemporary gives its party leaders the following lecture, which its party leaders simply cannot resist.

"It is a strange government without party. It is a strange government without party. It is a strange government without party."

"It is a strange government without party. It is a strange government without party. It is a strange government without party."

More Concerning the Tippeco.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

Sir,—Having observed different articles in your paper giving a history of this Tippeco, and believing them to be somewhat incorrect, I shall endeavor to give you a correct statement. Having communicated with some of the parties who were in a position to know the parties, I also had within the last ten days personal interviews with some of the same parties, and I am now in a position to give you a correct statement of the facts.

John Macdonald, who was the Tippeco, was in reality a man of good character, and as such ought to be opposed by the Government. Mr. Irving was not disposed to relieve the Government of their proper responsibility for the Tippeco, and was not disposed to relieve the Government of their proper responsibility for the Tippeco.

Mr. Workman informed the House that at the Tippeco, he was in a position to give you a correct statement of the facts. After some other gentlemen had spoken, Mr. Cartwright declared himself in favor of the Tippeco, and the House rose at 4 o'clock.

Neelon Unrepentant.

Mr. Sylvester Neelon, whose disqualification by the House of Appeals and subsequent withdrawal by Mr. Mowat's legislative supporters in the Legislature was lately discussed to comment on, is, as was anticipated, a candidate for re-election in consistency with his moneyed interest.
It was stated that Neelon should be the standard bearer of the party before the whitehead brick was applied to him. In fact, it was for that very purpose that he was chosen, as no other fit in Lincoln is in a position to be so liberal as to contributing the funds necessary for the running of the "standard of public morality." However, although the matter was arranged, the faithful went through the process of meeting in Convention and nominating as their candidate the man who had been known and widely visited in the city for the purpose of which this party was so clamorous a few years ago, as their only protection against the "corruption" of the "Times," that stuffy themselves and once more evidencing the same old method of proceeding, by nominating a divorced and convicted felon.

Of course the gallant Captain was present at the Convention, and equally as a matter of course he addressed the "free and independent" who had the honor to elect him of "purity" and that party at one time had, to the credit of their features of their policy. The speech which Mr. Neelon addressed to the Convention shows to what depths such a man as he is prepared to go in the endeavor to win their offices.
He said, referring to the case of bribery which he was convicted:

"I tell you, gentlemen, if I were elected today, and another election was held tomorrow, I would do exactly the same thing again, even if it cost me my life." This, as a piece of brazen audacity to give the reader a fair idea of the character of the speaker, it might have been perhaps excused in some measure as an unguarded statement made in a heated moment; but Mr. Neelon repeats the same words with the same intonation, and with the same tenacity in his printed address to the electors the atrocious declaration that the decision of the Court had been "unjust," and that the account of the transaction upon which he was convicted was "entirely untrue." With the fact, Mr. Neelon not only repeats the decision of Justice Chapman, who tried the case, but also that of Chief Justice Dwyer, and Justice Mac-donnell, and Mr. Neelon, who unanimously concur in the finding of Justice Dwyer and in rejecting the appeal. The spectacle of Mr. Neelon setting up his individual opinion against that of five of the judges is so ridiculous that it can scarcely be taken with gravity, though it doubtless has a graver side, and we trust that the people of Lincoln will rebuke this attack on the judiciary, which has always been our country's pride, by refusing such a man to hold office.
Neelon, that he will never venture to seek their suffrages again. He is, besides, an unrepentant sinner against the law, and though the unrepentance of his political friends has relieved him of his political responsibilities, the fact of his culpability cannot be obliterated. The Legislature has annulled the punishment due to his crime, but the electors of Lincoln in passing upon the merits of the respective candidates and of the parties, ought also to consider most carefully whether it is not their duty to uphold the name of justice in striking down such culprits, which they can only do by choosing Mr. Byrnes and rejecting Mr. Neelon, at home and abroad, upon the justice of the sentence which the law, as it stood before his conviction, and as it stands now, declares shall be the punishment of those who transgress as he did.
Let them also bear in mind, as we said earlier, that this conclusion, that the offence of Messrs. Stock and Scott was purely venial, and that the law has been amended in such a manner that no such trivial offence as theirs will ever constitute a criminal candidate, the framers of the constitution acknowledging that those gentlemen constituted no offence, which logically the opposite holds good in the case of Messrs.

THE TORONTO QUESTION. A cable special says: "There is the best authority for stating that the secret paragraph inserted by the British Cabinet in the article of admission to the American note stipulates that the Sultan shall send a special Commissioner to the insurgents, and if the latter reject the proposal of peace, the American Government will occupy the Port of Constantinople for six months, and Britain will send a fleet to cruise in Turkish waters in the Adriatic." It is learned that Russian influence is helping in the Russian invasion, and that on Tuesday the steps to enforce its rights, a Russian force of 100,000 men is held ready to occupy Roumania."

The Tariff.

The Montreal News has the following respecting the tariff from the Ottawa correspondent:

"The Government are ready with their financial policy, and it is expected that the budget will be brought down next week, unless the debate going on with reference to the appointment of a Committee on the financial depression should be prolonged further than is expected. The duties on sugar, liquor and produce are the most controversial, and a moderate tariff will be put on from 175 per cent to 200, or, perhaps 225 per cent."

There has been a considerable increase in the consumption of intoxicating liquor during the past year, and this, it is held by Mr. Mackenzie to be, while it is held by the country and people in general, is believed to demonstrate the fact that an increased revenue may be derived from this source.

"The duty will be increased, it is said, from several raw materials which enter into Canadian manufactures. The tariff will be otherwise revised so as to yield increased revenue without affecting a large measure of protection to our manufactures may be consistent with the interests of all classes. The Government will take the same line, a revenue tariff is indispensable, and at this moment, leaving no scope for the application of abstract principles. It is understood from Confederate sources that the Opposition will fully to force, and will be disposed to try its strength with Mr. Cartwright bringing down his budget; and from the completed scheme which will be brought into effect, a very lively debate is anticipated. The nativity which the Government commands has been recently estimated at from $500,000 to $1,000,000. The Government is following party lines are characterized by the divergence of opinion as to free trade and protection."

The Seamen's Act.

The following is a summary of the "Seamen's Act," which was passed by the House of Commons on Feb. 18.
The act is designed to regulate the trade of Canada, by an act passed at the session of the Dominion Parliament last year. This Act came into force on the 1st of January 1876, and will therefore apply to all transactions made during the coming session.
The first provision in this act is that the Captain and every member of his crew must enter into a written agreement, a form of which is given in the act, and by which, said agreement to take the nature, and as far as practicable, the duration of the intended voyage or engagement; 2nd, the number and description of the crew, specifying how many are engaged as sailors; 3rd, the time which each seaman is to be on board or to begin work; 4th, the capacity in which each seaman is to serve; 5th, the amount of wages which each seaman is to receive; and 6th, any regulations as to wages, board, and as to fines and other lawful punishments for misconduct which the parties agree to adopt. This law seems to meet a necessity which has long been felt by ship-owners.
Hitherto they have been at the mercy of the whims, strikes, and other misconduct on the part of sailors. Now they will be able to compel the latter to remain to the end of the trip, and to enforce proper punishment for bad conduct.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

THIRD SESSION—THIRD PARLIAMENT.

FEBRUARY, Feb. 18.

Mr. Read, moved for the return of the correspondence with the contractors of the Georgetown Bay Bridge. He said that it had been stated in the papers that the route from the city to the bay had been decided by Parliament by Mr. Mackenzie, and that application had been made by Mr. Read to the Government for an increase of the subsidy from $10,000 to $15,000, besides other changes of the route, and that the Government had agreed to the same. He said that the Government had agreed to the same. He said that the Government had agreed to the same.

Mr. Campbell also discussed the Government for proceeding with the road, which was not a part of the Pacific railway.
Mr. Macpherson said that the bill was to benefit the owners of timber lands along its route. There was nothing to supply it with timber, and he could not see how the country would derive from it. The railway had done the character of a road, and it should have been constructed by local enterprise.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

After routine, the debate on Mr. Miller's motion for a select Committee to inquire into the state of the country was carried on. Mr. John (Leeds), saw no reason why the Committee should be appointed. The country should have a fixed policy, and that in interest of protection. Mr.
Davis favored protection.
Mr. Orton also favored a protective tariff, believing that the farmers were alive to the necessity of the manufacturers being prosperous.

Mr. Leedes moved in amendment to the main motion: "Resolved that an early revision of the tariff is very desirable, and that a revised tariff should be greater degree than the existing tariff in favor of home production in manufactures, and that in interest of protection of the country or one industry to the injury of other sections and other industries, and that in interest of great benefit to the whole Dominion."
The question was raised as to whether this motion was in order, as it proposed no amendment to the original motion. Messrs.
Miller, Mackenzie and Blake arguing that it was out of order.
Sir John Macdonald said that the amendment was in order, though he advised its withdrawal, as it was not fair to attempt to force the Government to amend. He had an opportunity to lay their views on taxation before them.

their Clergy the habitants of Desapport and Charlevoix have, during the past few days, sent seventy seats of the wood to the aid of the poor of the latter town.

the Government Surveyors, are engaged in making a bridge in the bed of the River St.
Charles in connection with the proposed harbor improvement.
In the City Council last night the subject of widening St. John Street was discussed.
Some definite action in the matter will likely be taken to obtain that much needed improvement.

been in the store for some time, as they took some cheese, salted, etc. Three rough looking characters were seen in town last night, who are suspected.

Notices of the Press.

The Bazar is edited with a combination of taste and talent that we seldom find in any journal, and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.

The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashionable-plates in endless variety, to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's clothes.

bolded slippers and luxurious dressing-gown. But the reading matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the freudic enjoyment it affords.—N. Y. Evening Post.

In its way there is nothing like it. Fresh and trustworthy as a fashion guide, its stories and essays, its poetry and equine, are all invigorating to the mind.—Chicago Evening Journal.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.
THIRD SESSION—THIRD PARLIAMENT.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 23.
The Hon. Charles Cameron, for North Victoria, was introduced by Sir John Macdonald and Mr. Hillyard Cameron, and took his seat.

Mr. HILLYARD CAMERON introduced a Bill to amend the Criminal Code, in relation to the offence of wilful homicide. It was similar to that introduced last session, with the addition of two clauses, which were necessary in consequence of circumstances which had occurred during the session. It was to remove doubts as to the intention of the evidence of witnesses who had been guilty of wilful homicide, and had been sentenced to death. It appeared that the testimony of a convicted person was admitted, and there was no reason why that of a person undergoing punishment should be rejected. It was a Bill of a very ordinary character, and it was not expected that it would require to be brought to a division.

The Bill was read the first time.

It was similar to that introduced last session, with the addition of two clauses, which were necessary in consequence of circumstances which had occurred during the session. It was to remove doubts as to the intention of the evidence of witnesses who had been guilty of wilful homicide, and had been sentenced to death. It appeared that the testimony of a convicted person was admitted, and there was no reason why that of a person undergoing punishment should be rejected. It was a Bill of a very ordinary character, and it was not expected that it would require to be brought to a division.

The Bill was read the first time.

The New Licence Act.

(From the Peterborough Review.)

Some time before the Licence Act passed at the session of the Ontario Legislature, which has just closed, we are in position to lay before our readers, and to intelligently discuss its several provisions.

While reviewing, we observe that it has many peculiarities, and that it is passed through the House, particularly with reference to the distribution of the revenue collected under it, is not entirely in accordance with the purpose, as the present intention, to measure, but to supply the revenue of the more important of the provisions accompanied by such explanations as they may seem to call for.

The first section of the act transfers "all powers and duties conferred and imposed upon the Municipal Councils, by the existing Licence Laws to the Commissioners to be composed of three persons to be appointed from time to time by the Local Government in Council for each city, county, union or township, and the Council may think fit." This clause, as it stands, it will be seen, is not

call for.

Unlimited Remedial Resources.
 People sometimes suppose that Dr. Fere's Family Medicine is not the entire extent of his resources for curing disease. This is an error. Experience proves that while the Golden Medical Discovery, Favorite Prescription Pleasant Purgative Pills, Compound Extract of Smart Weed and Dr. Sage's Scurvy Remedy, would, if judiciously used, cure a large variety of chronic complaints, there would be left and there is a class which, from its severity, or from its complication with other diseases, would resist their action.
 These complaints, arising from a thorough examination into their symptoms, to ascertain the cause and extent of the disease, or diseases which the patient was laboring with, and the use of specific remedies to overcome the same. This letterhead is the result of the World's Dispensary, at N. Y. With its Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons, each of whom is skilled in the treatment of chronic diseases in general and those belonging to his own special department in particular. As one is assigned diseases of the
